

Email Marketing & Personalization

Case Study

A four-segment lifecycle strategy designed to convert first-time buyers, recover lost carts, reactivate dormant customers, and reward true loyalty.

01 • The Brief

Speak to her, not at her.

Joana K Cosmetics is a Kenyan lip cosmetics brand offering a premium range of liquid lipsticks, lip glosses and lip oils. The brief was to develop a full email marketing and personalization strategy that speaks directly to four distinct customer segments — moving away from generic mass emails toward intentional, personalized communication that converts new buyers, recovers lost sales, reactivates dormant customers, and rewards loyalty.

02 • The Objective

Five outcomes, one strategy.

01 Increase repeat purchases through personalized communication.

02 Recover abandoned carts before they are lost permanently.

03 Reactivate inactive customers with a compelling reason to return.

04 Build long-term brand loyalty through recognition and reward.

05 Create emails that feel human, warm and on-brand for JK.

03 • The Strategy

Four moves that turn inboxes into intimacy.

Step 1	Step 2	Step 3	Step 4
Audience Segmentation	Personalization	Discount Architecture	Urgency & Exclusivity
Divide the customer base into four distinct segments based on purchase behavior and engagement — so every message is relevant to where she is in her journey.	Every email is addressed by first name, references her specific behavior — purchase, abandoned cart, inactivity — and offers a reward that matches her relationship with the brand.	Each segment gets a different discount level, calibrated to the effort required to convert. New customers get a smaller reward; inactive customers get a bigger one to overcome resistance.	Every email creates urgency through expiring codes and exclusivity through language that makes each customer feel she is receiving something nobody else is.

04 · The Four Segments

Where she is decides what we say.

01	First-Time Buyer Just completed her first JK order.	JKWELCOME15	15% OFF
02	Abandoned Cart Added to cart, didn't complete checkout.	JKCOMEBACK10	10% OFF
03	Inactive · Winback Quiet for 60–90 days. We miss her.	JKMISSYOU20	20% OFF
04	Loyal · Returning Two+ purchases or above the spend threshold.	JKLOYALTY20	20% OFF
